

Questions about: Honey is “the Bee’s Knees”

1. Who is narrating or telling us the story?
 - a. Madeline, a cat
 - b. Larry, a bird
 - c. Darwin, a dog
2. Some words that mean the same thing as “the Bee’s Knees” are:
 - a. mean, frightening, and overweight
 - b. stubborn, stinging, and sassy
 - c. beauty, sweetheart and a dream.
3. Honey was brought to the Center on a pole-catch because
 - a. the Animal Control Officer thought she was so calm and relaxed
 - b. the Animal Control Officer thought she was potentially dangerous
 - c. she had bitten her previous owner and sent him to the hospital
4. Honey had been spayed before arriving at the Wake County Animal Center.
 True False
Explain your answer.

Honey had given birth to several litters before arriving at the WCAC.

5. Honey had been well-treated by her original owner.
 True False
Explain your answer.

She was underweight and her body was covered in sores.
6. In paragraph three, which word means the same thing as “harrowing”?
 - a. exciting
 - b. terrifying
 - c. contented

7. What is a common prefix in paragraph 4, line 1, that means “bad”?
mal
8. Put the events below in their correct chronological order.
 4 a. Honey finds a foster care home.
 1 b. Honey is transported to the Wake County Animal Center.
 3 c. WCAC staff try to transfer Honey to rescue groups.
 2 d. Honey gives birth to a litter of pups.
 5 e. Honey is spayed by a licensed veterinarian.

9. Separation-anxiety is a condition in dogs that is not easily treated in most dogs.

True False

10. Diadra began bringing Honey with her to work because Diadra

- a. got lonely in her job
- b. was worried Honey might hurt herself
- c. knew her other animals did not like Honey much

11. What is Honey's one fault or defect?

- a. She is "green-eyed" when other dogs get attention.
- b. She eats too much and eats the bunny's dinner.
- c. She snores loudly when she sleeps on the big bed.

12. How would you describe Honey's attitude towards kittens?

- a. threatening
- b. tolerant
- c. nervous

Explain your response.

She lies down and patiently waits for the kittens to approach her and lets the kittens sniff her and explore.

13. What are some of the main benefits of spaying?

- a. Prevents unwanted litters
- b. Keeps our pets healthier
- c. Reduces overpopulation in our shelters
- d. All of the above

14. Draw a picture of Honey cuddling up to her grandma on the couch. Be sure to include details like her physical appearance and the items on her collar.